DISCIPLEMAKERS?

WHAT IS DISCIPLEMAKERS (DM)?

Disciplemaking is normal Christianity. So, DM is the bedrock class we offer at Church on Mill to help us with it. We read books, have large group teaching times, and discuss in small groups.

WHAT'S THE GOAL OF DM?

The goal is for each participant to become equipped with the Word to apply the gospel to hearts in biblical community. In other words, to become what we are each called to be: effective disciple-making-disciples of Jesus Christ.

WHY DM?

For many of us, if we have any church background at all, we were trained to attend activities, not equipped with the Word to apply the gospel to the heart. As a result, we struggle to examine our own hearts, let alone begin to impact the people around us. It does not have to be this way. God's Word can go forth from us with God's power. In fact, it must!

WHAT'S THE COMMITMENT?

The cost for a semester of DM is $40. Participants can expect to read about two hr/wk in preparation. Included in the cost are four books.

DO YOU HAVE TO LIKE READING?

Jesus didn't have academically-oriented apostles, but they loved learning and writing about him. By God's grace, even those who hated school can enjoy reading to better understand his Word. This class is not meant for the elite Christian, but every Christian.

IS THIS FOR ME?

Yes. Seasoned Christians: we think you'll find it surprisingly refreshing and helpful. New Christians: we think it'll help you start your walk on a wonderful path. Still unsure? Learn more at Launch Night.
