

Residency Program Application

General Instructions

1300 S. Mill Ave

Tempe, AZ 85281

Thank you for your interest in a residency at Church on Mill. Our church campus is located across the street from Arizona State University, providing rich opportunity for a variety of ministries. We are a church family making disciples and helping churches for the worship and glory of God. We desire to be used by God to give future Kingdom leaders early, positive experience in local church ministry.

Church on Mill wants to consider applications from those who show a passion and love for Jesus Christ and his church; possess, by God's grace, a character of integrity; and have the desire and potential to be an evangelical leader. If selected for residency, applicants will be asked to become members of Church on Mill during their time of serving the body through this program, which includes affirming our Membership Commitment.

We currently offer residency positions for men and women interested in vocational ministry. Residents can spend their time as a Pastoral Resident, Collegiate Ministry Resident, International Student Ministry Resident, or Family Ministries Resident.

Resident

- One-year commitment
- Roughly 30 hours per week, with hours taking place on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays
- Mondays and Fridays, no residency commitments. Saturdays and Sundays, varied residency responsibilities as per calendar and as needed. Refrain from scheduling another job before 2pm on Sundays to allow for organic ministry opportunities after church.
- Residents take four classes at Church on Mill, with or without officially enrolling in Phoenix Seminary
- This role is specifically for people headed towards vocational ministry (directors, pastors, missionaries, etc.)
- As compensation we offer free on-campus housing, utilities, and study materials
- Applicants to this position should willingly affirm our Membership Commitment

By offering a residency program, we hope to encourage and influence future pastors and missionaries in their role in evangelical churches and organizations. Priority is given to leaders preparing for local church ministry. Under supervision, residents will gain experience in various areas of the church, such as teaching, music, pastoral leadership, church polity, urban ministry, missions, and college/international ministry.

To complete the application, please send each of the following to via email to:
office@churchonmill.org

1. Completed application form
2. Résumé
3. Two letters of recommendation (one from a pastor)
If you are married, include a letter from a pastor who can describe your marriage and speak to its suitability for ministry. This letter must be confidential and sent directly by the pastor to the above e-mail.
4. Digital photo
5. Answers to the following questions:
 - a. How did you become a Christian?
 - b. Why do you want to be a resident at Church on Mill?
 - c. What do you hope to learn/experience during the course of a residency?
 - d. Describe the church you currently attend and your involvement (Include your spouse, if applicable).
 - e. What kind of ministry do you think God is leading you into?
 - f. When are you available to begin your residency?
 - g. Residents are not considered regular full-time employees of Church on Mill, so it is not our practice to provide health insurance. What plans do you have to provide coverage during your residency?
 - h. If you are married, tell us about your marriage and any concerns you may have for it as you consider pastoral ministry.

Thank you for your interest. If you have any questions, please contact the office at (480) 967-0569 or send an email to office@churchonmill.org.
